All of the prizes for the main categories will be voted on by the public viewing the films.

The Retina Awards of the Official Section for Children will be announced in November, once the projections planned for the week of childhood are completed.

Every award winner will be selected by the audience attending the screenings and apart from the cash prize, they will be given a trophy which will represent the Festival (a piece of ceramic emulating a retina), a diploma and a recognition laurel that certifies their status as best film of the corresponding official section.

The rest of the finalist works of the official, parallel sections and theme series, who have not obtained prizes or mentions, will be given a diploma and a recognition laurel which will prove that they have been selected in the Festival.
